June 8, 2018 Oakland Art Association eBulletin

Dear OAA Members;

- We have been in a the "calm before the storm" for the last two months but hang on because things are about to get interesting. We have three great juried show going up, one just after the other.
    - First will be the new Chamber of Commerce Show a week from today on Friday June 15th, the rules for this show are attached for your information.
    - Three weeks later, on Friday July 6th we will open one of our big shows for the year, the Abstract Show at the Alameda County Law Library. Please see the attached rules sheet for this show. This show is where non-representational artists get the chance to really shine.
    - A little more than three weeks after the Abstract Show, on Wednesday August 1st we'll collect and hang the Orinda Library Show.
        - If history holds, this will our biggest show of 2018. When we last showed at Orinda we sold 5 or 6 pieces of art.
        - the rules sheet for this show is still being finalized, but plan to bring up to three entries to the Orinda Library around 10am on August 1st.
        - Orinda is one of the places we can exhibit your 3D art. (please email Jenny (jpkolkhorst@comcast.net) to check details.
        - Because of the number of entries expected, and because this show only runs for the month of August, the Board decided that the entry fee would be only $5 per entry again this year.
        - the rules for Orinda are also attached to this email.
- The call went out in the last eBulletin for volunteers to help with all these shows, and (THANK YOU VERY MUCH) our members responded! Attached is the updated volunteer list – complete, except for one last spot at the Chamber Show.
    - If you can help with the Chamber show next week, please let me know by return email.
    - Please review the attached "Volunteer" list to make sure we have it right.
- Welcome another new member to the Oakland Art Association! Our newest member is Michael Brodsky (bsculptor@sbcglobal.net), whose art includes both painting and photography. We are all looking forward to seeing your art Michael – lots of good shows coming up, so please dive right in!
- The Oakland City Hall Show will go up during the first week of September, watch this spot for more details!
