

Hi Everyone.

OAA's first ever Online show is shaping up to be GREAT success!

- At the moment we have just over 50 pieces committed by 18 member artists.
- if you haven't entered, there are still two days left.
 - The show rules are attached again for your reference.
- Carol Tarzier has agreed to judge the show.
- A small but dedicated committee is working hard to publicize this show (and your art) through local news posts and social media.

Unfortunately, we are still waiting for any news about starting our real world shows again.

- Several members have asked specifically about recovering our art from the John Muir Hospital Show.
 - The volunteer gallery curator asked the Hospital again today for an update about when we might be allowed access to take down our art -- short answer is they/we just don't know.
- The thing that needs to happen before we can access our physical show venues, is for the "shelter in place" order to be lifted.
- Meanwhile think again about participating in the online show -- at the moment it's the best bet to show your art.

Watch for another email as soon as the situation changes.

Thanks again to you all!
